

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

TUESDAY'S PRIMARY

Captain W. R. Mayo Secures the Nomination for Mayor.

THE VOTE WAS LARGER THAN EXPECTED

The Virginian's Extra Published the Complete Returns Ahead of Any Paper in the City—The Contest Was Exciting but Orderly—A Second Day's Primary Necessary.

The last returns from Tuesday's primary were not in before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and were published in a brief space thereafter in an extra gotten out for the purpose by The Virginian, the first paper in the city, and the only morning paper, to give the complete returns. As will be seen, those known to be nominated at the present time, are as follows:

Mayor—W. R. Mayo.
Commissioner of the Revenue—W. W. DeWitt.
City Sergeant—John F. Lawler.
Commonwealth's Attorney—James F. Duncan.
City Attorney—Walter H. Taylor.
Physician to the Almshouse—Dr. L. C. Shepherd.

Of course, a second day's primary will be necessary to decide the contest for the offices not mentioned above.

Notwithstanding the fact that the largest primary vote in years was polled and that the contest was closely and warmly waged, the day was marked by not the least disorder or unpleasant incident.

Owing to the number of names on the ticket considerable time was consumed in the count, but all Tuesday night, as fast as the returns came in, they were bulletined in front of The Virginian office for the benefit of the large throng that collected and remained there during the night.

A tabulated statement of the vote follows:

PRETTY HOME MARRIAGE.

Miss Katherine Borum Becomes Mrs. Frederick Royal Robbins.

One of the prettiest home marriages witnessed here for some time was that which was solemnized last evening at the residence of Capt. Samuel R. Borum, No. 8 Brewer street, in which the contracting parties were Miss Katherine Borum, the charming daughter of the house, and Mr. Frederick Royal Robbins, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Rev. M. B. Wharton, D. D., of Freemason Street Baptist Church, performed the ceremony in the handsome parlors, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was attended by the groom. There were no attendants, and only the relatives and a few friends of the happy couple were present.

At 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Robbins left on a tug for Old Point, from whence they will be continued.

The newly-wedded couple are extremely popular in this city, as well as everywhere else where they are known. More than one hundred presents were received from Norfolk alone, besides numerous handsome gifts from their friends in other cities.

IN THE COURTS OF LAW

Jim Wynne, An Ex-Prohib Policeman, Gets in Trouble.

NOTHING OF GREAT IMPORTANCE DONE.

His Honor in a Quandary—Examination Postponed—Minor Police Court Cases—The Corporation Court—Several Marriages Licenses Issued—Other Court Matters.

Jim Wynne was one of the first Prohibition-Reform policeman. He resigned from the force because, as he claimed, he was unjustly accused of stealing a pistol from a brother officer. After leaving the force Wynne got work with Mayor Pollock. The missing gun came to light in the police station the other day, the officer who had it saying he bought it from a colored man for $2.50. Wynne was before His Honor yesterday on the charge of assaulting Grace Hall and David Jacobosky, a Portsmouth man. He was fined $20 and costs in each case, from which he appealed.

COULDN'T DECIDE THE QUESTION.

On the night of March 8th last officers Hobbs and Smith detailed to visit the house of Flora Wood, on Washington street, and endeavor to purchase beer, so as to secure a conviction for selling liquor without license. Bell stated that they had been asked to treat about as soon as they got in the house. A dollar was produced by one of the officers and beer was brought in and drunk. The girls testified that they sent out and bought the liquor, and there was no evidence to show that they did otherwise. Justice Burroughs took the case under advisement, and released the defendants, Maria Burns and Olla Jones, on their own recognizance.

EXAMINATION POSTPONED.

Daniel Monroe and Walter Blount, both colored, were arrested, the latter upon two warrants, charging them with breaking into the storehouse of A. Sauer, on Union street, and stealing 13 razors, a pair of clippers, 2 pairs of shears. Blount is also charged with stealing a watch, pistol, cigarettes and $1.50 in money. They were before His Honor, but the examination was postponed until May 4.

BIG JACK DISCHARGED.

Officer Ludy Tuesday night arrested "Big Jack," a large colored man, charged with stealing a cotton coat from Alex. Underlong, valued at 50 cents. When the case came up for trial yesterday the complainant could bring forward no evidence to prove his charge, and the prisoner was discharged.

TABLET OF BRONZE.

Unveiled at Cape Henry in Memory of the First Jamestown Colony.

The 289th anniversary of the landing of the first Virginia colony was celebrated yesterday at Cape Henry by the unveiling of a bronze tablet on the old lighthouse tower. The ceremonies were conducted by Bishop Randolph, of this city, who offered a brief prayer. An appropriate address was made by Rev. C. B. Bryan, of Hampton, Va. The tablet was unveiled at noon by Mrs. C. B. Bryan.

The tablet is of bronze, 29 inches square, surmounted by a 7 inch bronze cross, and bears the following inscription:

Near This Spot Landed, April 26, 1607, Captain Gabriel Archer, Hon. George S. Percy, Christopher Newport, Bartholomew Gosnold, Edward Maria Wingfield, With Twenty-five Others, Who, Calling the Place "Cape Henry," Planted a Cross, April 29, 1607.

"Del Gratia Virginia Conditia." This Tablet Is Erected By the Association For Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, April 29, 1896.

The tablet is attached to the old stone lighthouse which was constructed in 1873, the use of which for lighthouse purposes has been abandoned since the building of the immense steel structure at Cape Henry. The United States Government gave to the society permission to affix the tablet to the old tower, thereby marking the first landing place of the Jamestown colony.

WANT THE SHOPS.

A Committee From Henderson, N. C., Wants Upon Vice President St. John.

Yesterday a committee arrived here from Henderson, N. C., composed of the following representative business men of that town: Messrs. W. S. Parker, J. P. Massenburg, Dr. William T. Chatham, W. W. Rowland, G. B. Harris, S. W. Watkins, J. H. Lassiter and J. R. Young. These gentlemen were closeted with General E. St. John, of the Seaboard Air Line, during the day, and when seen by a Virginian reporter last night at the Atlantic Hotel, refused point blank to state the object of the trip, though one of them, indeed laughingly remarked, "He was here to see the baseball game. (He used to be a drummer.)"

Of course, it was at once divined that the purpose of the visit was to induce the railroad authorities to locate the big shops of the road recently burned at Raleigh, at Henderson. None of the committee seen would admit this or even the fact that they constituted a committee.

General St. John was seen at his residence, and confirmed the suspicion, stating that the committee were very desirous of securing the shops for their town, the advantages of which they had placed before him. He, however, refused to state whether or not inducements of a pecuniary nature were offered, and if so, what they were. He declared, however, that the people of Raleigh were exceedingly anxious that the shops be rebuilt there, and had appointed a committee to visit here in the interests of that city. "We are not yet quite ready to see the committee, though," said General St. John.

There has been some talk of securing the shops for Portsmouth, but no information could be obtained on this point, as the hour is not yet ripe for it to be given out.

The Fair Closes.

The Pythian Fair, which has attracted so many visitors to Armory Hall during the past ten days, closed last night with a general auction of the stock on hand, the receipts from which were gratifyingly large. The military sword, which was to be awarded to the most popular line officer, was not voted on and will be returned.

The management of the fair expressed themselves in terms highly complimentary of the splendid assistance rendered by all those who participated, and who were untiring in their efforts to make it a success.
